About Your Original Academic Records:

If your original academic records are already in the mail, no further action is required from you at this time. However, if you have not yet mailed your original academic records to our office, please do so at this time. Be sure to visit our website to review the required documentation.

We look forward to receiving your documentation so that we may proceed with your evaluation.

Our office will send you a confirmation e-mail once we receive them.

Please be advised that your file will only be reviewed to determine if any additional documents are required once we receive your original academic records.

Thank you!
